Formal Hunter Derby Course

Open to All Riders. Each Derby will have two rounds of competition, a Classic Hunter Round and a Handy Hunter Round. The first round will be judged on performance, hunter pace, jumping style, quality and substance, and movement of the horse. The score from this round will rank the top horse and rider combinations and the top 12 will come back to compete in the round.

The second round scores reflect brilliance of pace and handiness. In each round, one point will be added to the base score for any high-option fences (6" difference) jumped without major fault, for a maximum of four additional points.

First round scores will be added to the second round scores and determine the final placings of the class.

Each height will be limited to 25 Entries - highly suggest Pre-Entering
