Special Awards

Linda Kuck will award $500 to a young & up and coming horse show rider for the 2026 show season. To be eligible for this award, English & Western riders must:

- Show in all 3 of our horse shows,
- Be qualified for a year end award and
- Attend our year end celebration.

The winner of the 2025 award was our horse show competitor Maya Gennings.

In memory of Charlie Vetter, a great friend and horse show & horse pull supporter, Kaye Saglibene will generously donate a $225 credit for the 2027 horse show season.

All English and Western riders are eligible for this award if they plan to compete in the next show year and attend the year-end celebration.

The winner of the 2025 award was Aria Quatrocci.

Special Awards

Grand Champion

Jamie Manning has generously donated a year-end award of $500 and a perpetual trophy to recognize the high-point horse and rider combination whose combined ages total 80 years or more.

Age is just a number—especially in the saddle!

To be eligible for a year-end award, qualifying combinations must :

- Have a combined rider/driver and horse age of at least 80 years.
- Compete in all three shows, and
- Attend the year-end awards celebration

Reserve Champion

PleasantLand Farm, in Poughkeepsie, NY, is sponsoring a Reserve Champion award of $250.00.

PleasantLand Farm is farmstand and eco-friendly small farm that grows vegetables, flowers, and herbs using natural practices, with heirloom and beefsteak tomatoes among their most popular crops. Through the farmstand and website, customers can purchase fresh produce along with home-made and locally made products from the community.

Policies & Procedures

1. All riders must be casually but neatly attired for classes. All competitors under the age of 18 are required to wear an ASTM/SEI certified helmet. Those not in compliance will be excused.

ENGLISH: certified helmet; boots, breeches, polo shirts or other collared shirt, jacket optional according judge's discretion; half chaps and paddock boots permitted.
WESTERN: Western hat or certified helmet; collared long sleeve shirt, long pants/jeans and heeled boots; chaps optional

2. All entries must be signed by an adult; a parent or guardian must sign for an exhibitor under 18 years of age. Signature shall constitute acceptance of all policies and procedures.

3. Current proof of negative Coggins and rabies vaccination certificate are required for all horses dated within one year of the show date.

4. Any horse deemed unsafe for riders, exhibitors or spectators will be asked to leave the showgrounds. Any person behaving in an unsportsmanlike or inappropriate manner will be asked to leave the showgrounds

5. All dogs must be leashed and under control at all times.

6. Alcoholic beverages and controlled substances are not permitted on the premises. Anyone found consuming them will be asked to leave the showgrounds.

7. All decisions made by the show committee and/or judges are final. Show committee and/or judges reserve the right to combine, split or cancel classes/divisions

Policies & Procedures

8. Approaching the judge must be done with permission of show management

9. Patterns/tests will be posted at least one week prior to show date and at least one hour prior to the class

10. Any competitor that enters a walk/trot only division may not enter into any division that has a lope/canter class.

11. Schooling on the flat is permitted in the main ring prior to the start of the show and during posted breaks. No lunging in the main ring.

12. The Dressage arena will be open for schooling except during the Hunter Derby.

13. Tymor Park, Albrecht Equestrian Center, and all event management and volunteers will not be responsible for any accidents which may occur or be caused by any person or animal on the showgrounds.

14. Points will be awarded on a 7/5/4/3/2/1 basis with a full class of 4 or more exhibitors. Classes with fewer than 4 exhibitors will receive half points (3.5/2.5/2)
Rider/handler will accumulate points in classes judged on the rider/handler. Horse will accumulate points in classes judged on the horse. Show-day ties for Champion and Reserve will be decided by the winner of the flat/rail class in that division.

Policies & Procedures

15. Equipment:

ENGLISH: martingales only in over fences classes, boots or polo wraps not permitted in hunter classes.

WESTERN: Gag bits, martingales or tie downs and sport boots are prohibited. Riding with two hands in a shank bit is cause for disqualification.

All other tack and equipment must be approved by judge and show manager.

16. Year End Awards: a minimum of 10 points per division must be accumulated in order to be considered for a year end award. Points will be posted on the website (www.albrechteqcenter.org) within 15 days of each horse show. Please contact us within 30 days to report any discrepancies. After 30 days, points posted are FINAL. Year-end awards will be presented as follows: Division Champion, Reserve Champion, Third Place, and Fourth Place. For English and Western Showmanship and Halter classes, only a Champion will be awarded.

Ties for division awards will be broken by the horse or rider who earned the most points in the flat/rail classes for that division during the single competition year.

Rider may not enter or show in any other class at this show that is W/T only.

1. Equitation W/T/C
2. Equitation 18" O/F
3. Equitation 18" O/F

Hunter 18" : Open to all horses and ponies. Judged based on the horse's performance over fences as well as its quality of movement under saddle on the flat. Jumps not to exceed 18". Rider may not enter or show in any other class at this show that is W/T only.

4. Hunter W/T/C
5. Hunter O/F 18" O/F
6. Hunter O/F 18" O/F

Hunter Derby: Two rounds. Open to all horses and ponies. The first round will be scored numerically. The first course will consist of at least ten fences. The second round must have a minimum of two handy options, such as tight turns, hand gallop a jump, trot a lowered obstacle not to exceed 18" in height, halt, and or back. The top eight horses from the first round—after all ties are broken—will return for a second round, riding in reverse numerical score order. A portion of the entry money will be added back as prize money. Rider combination may not enter or show in any other class at this show that is W/T only. A minimum of 4 entries required to run this class.

7. Hunter Derby (2 rounds)

Crossrail W/T/C: Judged on the rider. Open to junior and adult riders. Division may be split by age if warranted. Crossrails will be a pattern of twice around the outside unless otherwise specified on the day of the show. Flat class will be W/T/C. Simple lead changes will not be penalized. Rider may not enter or show in any other class at this show that is W/T only.

8. Crossrail Equitation on the Flat W/T/C
9. Crossrail Equitation O/F
10. Crossrail Equitation O/F

Crossrail W/T: Judged on the rider. Open to junior and adult riders. Division may be split by age if warranted. Crossrails will be a pattern of twice around the outside unless otherwise specified on the day of the show. Flat class will be W/T; cantering more than 3 strides in the O/F classes will be penalized. Rider may not enter or show in any other class at this show that is W/T/C.

11. Crossrail Equitation on the Flat W/T
12. Crossrail Equitation O/F
13. Crossrail Equitation O/F

Groundpole Equitation: Judged on the rider. Open to junior and adult riders. Division may be split by age if warranted. Ground poles will be a pattern of once around the outside unless otherwise specified on the day of the show. Half seat/2-point over poles is optional. Walk/Trot only. Rider may not enter or show in any other class at this show that is W/T/C.

18. English Beginner Equitation W/T - Equitation: to be shown as a group
19. English Beginner Equitation W/T - Command: to be shown as a group

Command Classes: a horse show class where a judge calls out commands for the horse and rider to perform, such as changing gaits, turning, stopping, or backing up. The horse and rider are judged on how well they execute these commands, with a focus on obedience, attentiveness, and efficiency.

Fitting & Showmanship: Judged on the handler. Focuses on the handler's ability to fit and show a horse in a halter/bridle. The judge evaluates the grooming of the horse and the exhibitor's ability to execute a pattern with precision and smoothness while exhibiting poise and confidence. The pattern may consist of walking, trotting, turning, backing, and setting up. Alternative tack and equipment approved at the discretion of the judge and show management.

20. English fitting and showmanship - English attire and bridle
21. Western fitting & showmanship - Western attire and halter

English/Western Open Conformation Halter: Evaluates the horse's physical structure, balance, and movement against its breed ideal. Judges assess factors like muscling, structural correctness, and balance, using a lineup where horses are judged while being led to and from the judge. English horses to be shown in a bridle, handler in English attire. Western horses to be shown in a halter, handlers in Western attire. Alternative tack and equipment approved at the discretion of the judge and show management.

22. Open Conformation Halter

English/Western Leadline: Judged on the rider. Open to riders age 3 - 8. Riders must wear an ASTM/SEi certified helmet. To be shown as a group. Open to English and Western riders. Riders must use stirrups or buddy stirrups when riding. Riders must be led by an individual at least 18 y.o. Classes judged on criteria of rider's position, ability to ask their mount to halt and walk forward again, answer questions from the judge. Asking for riders to trot briefly is at the judges discretion.

23. English/western Leadline Equitation
24. English/western Leadline Pleasure

Albrecht Old Timers: The Albrecht Old Timers Class celebrates horsemanship, partnership, and the lifelong joy of riding. This class is open to horse and rider/driver combinations whose combined ages total 80 years or more on the day of competition. A panel of 3 judges will decide the winner. Points earned by competing at all three shows accumulate to qualify combinations for a year-end award (see page 2 in prize list for details)

Eligibility

- The combined age of horse and rider/driver must equal or exceed 80 years.
- Open to all disciplines.
- Riders/drivers must be able to walk (trot if able, not required) independently and safely.
- Horse and rider may only compete as one combination in this class.

Albrecht Old Timers class specifications continued on page 10

Class Specifications

- To be shown at the walk and trot (if able) only, both directions of the ring.
- No canter will be required or permitted.
- Riders may post, sit, ride or drive in a position appropriate for their discipline and comfort.
- Riders/drivers will be asked to reverse direction and may be asked to perform simple rail work, including:
  - Working walk
  - Working trot
  - Extended walk
  - Halt and stand quietly

Riding horses and driving horses will be judged together but exhibit separately for reasons of safety

Judging Criteria

This class will be judged as a flat class, emphasizing:

- Horsemanship and partnership
- Rider position and effectiveness
- Manners and suitability of the horse
- Quality and consistency of gaits
- Overall harmony of the combination

Tack and Attire

- All disciplines and riding and driving styles are welcome.
- Smart casual attire is permitted. Formal show attire is not required.
- Riders must wear safe, appropriate footwear and an ASTM-approved helmet is strongly recommended.
- Tack and equipment must be safe and appropriate for the discipline.

25. Albrecht Old Timers

English/Western Green Horse: Judged on the horse. This division is for horses with minimal experience and may only show in this division for 2 show seasons. To be shown as a group and judged on performance, soundness, manners, presence and quality. Horses entered into this division may only compete in other W/T divisions. They may not be cross entered into any W/T/C divisions.
