SHOW ATTIRE & EQUIPMENT

Formal English show attire is required for Hunter, Equitation, and English Flat classes, with the exceptions noted below.

- Hunters, Equitation & English Flat: Black, navy blue, or tweed show coat, appropriate show shirt, breeches or jodhpurs, and suitable riding boots.
- Jumpers: Traditional show attire or a neat, collared polo shirt with breeches and appropriate riding boots. Show coats are optional.
- Lead Line: Neat, appropriate English riding attire. A show coat is encouraged but not required.
- Helmets: ASTM/SEI-certified equestrian helmets must be properly secured whenever mounted.
- Tack: Traditional English tack is preferred. Reasonable equipment variations are permitted at management's discretion, provided they are safe, humane, and appropriate for the class.

All horses must be presented clean, sound, and appropriately equipped.

CLASS ELIGIBILITY & DIVISIONS

- Classes are open to eligible riders regardless of ISEC membership.
- Children's Classes: Riders 12 years of age and under.
- Junior Classes: Riders ages 13–17.
- Open Classes: Riders of all ages, including Children's, Junior, and Adult competitors.
- Adult Beginner Equitation: Riders ages 18 and older who meet ISEC's beginner eligibility requirements.
- Rider age is determined as of January 1 of the competition year.
- Children's and Junior riders may enter Open classes when appropriately qualified.
- Adult riders may not enter Children's or Junior classes.
- Division placement and beginner eligibility are based on rider experience and ability, rather than the horse alone, and are subject to management approval.
- Riders may enter multiple eligible classes, provided participation does not compromise safety.
- Management may restrict entries or require a rider to move divisions when appropriate for safety and fair competition.

YEAR-END CHAMPIONSHIP POINTS

The March Series Show is a qualifying event for the 2027 ISEC Year-End Division Championships.

- Only current ISEC members are eligible to earn championship points.
- Riders must compete in a minimum of four qualifying series shows to be eligible for year-end awards.
- Points are awarded according to the official ISEC five-point scoring system.
- Championship standings are maintained by rider and division.
- Year-end High Point and Reserve Champion awards will be presented to qualifying riders based on accumulated division standings.

Nonmembers are welcome to compete for individual show placings but will not accumulate year-end championship points.

GENERAL SHOW RULES & CONDUCT

All exhibitors, parents, trainers, handlers, and spectators are expected to observe the official ISEC Rules, Liability & Member Conduct Policy.

1. Registration & Payment: All required entries, fees, and liability waivers must be completed before participation. Online registration will open 45 days prior to the show.
2. Sportsmanship: Respectful conduct toward judges, officials, volunteers, competitors, and horses is mandatory.
3. Horse Welfare: Abuse, excessive discipline, unsafe handling, or inhumane equipment use is prohibited.
4. Arena Safety: Riders must follow posted arena rules, warm-up procedures, and instructions from show officials.
5. Dogs: All dogs must remain leashed and under control.
6. Judging: Judges' decisions regarding competitive placings are final.
7. Disqualification: Unsafe conduct, rule violations, or unsportsmanlike behavior may result in elimination or removal without refund.
8. Management Authority: ISEC reserves the right to modify schedules, class offerings, and event operations as necessary.

All participants must acknowledge the complete official ISEC Rules, Liability & Member Conduct Policy and execute the required liability release before competing.
